Welcome to your Library!

The mission of the Mountain Home Public Library is to strengthen the community, enrich lives, and be connected.

The Mountain Home Public Library is pleased to announce the availability of two self-checkout stations for our patrons. Checking out library materials has never been so easy or convenient!

Simply scan your library card at one of the stations, place your books on the pad, and print your receipt. You can also see what items are on your account, renew materials, and check fines all from one of these stations. Come try one for yourself today!

It's All Free at Your Library

Welcome to your Program Guide!
This all-in-one booklet contains our current and unique programs for all ages happening at the Mountain Home Public Library.

Bring your little one to a Storytime, participate in Music and Movement, perform a job search, print and send documents, 3D print, and, of course, read a book! There is something for everyone in the pages that follow.

lynda.com™

Use Lynda.com with your Library card! Through self-paced online learning, Lynda.com can help you learn business, software, technology, and creative skills to achieve personal and professional goals. Grab your Library card and head to mhlibrary.org , mouse over digital, and select Lynda.com to get started.

It's all available at your Library. Come check it out today!

Registration

When you see this symbol (R) next to a program title, you must register to attend that program. Easily register for programs by calling 208-587-4716, and tell us you want to register for a program. You can also stop by in person and we can help!
